Maurizio Micheli

Studies and Seminars:

Graduated at "Piccolo" in Milan and in "Arts and Entertainment" at University of Bologna.
After two performances at Piccolo in Milan with P.Chereau and one at Teatro Stabile in L'Aquila with A. Trionfo, he works in cabaret in Milan - from '72 to '77 - where he writes fifteen plays and shows, including: "Patria e mammà", "Giovinezza addio", "Magic Modern Macbett" and a personal version of "Cyrano".
In 1978 he writes with U.Simonetta " Strehler, wanted me", his more represented play (over 500 theatre performances)
